

5

In a wood there are 3 types of trees, ash, oak and fir.

- $\frac{3}{8}$ of the trees are ash trees.
- There are twice as many oak trees as fir trees.
- There are 252 more ash trees than fir trees.

How many oak trees are there?

A large, empty rectangular box with a blue border, intended for students to write their solution to the problem.